

News Notes and Gossip of the Day In the Smart Set of Washington

Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

Mrs. Frank Beatty, wife of Rear Admiral Beatty, and her daughter, Miss Emily Beatty, have taken a house in Annapolis for June week, and are entertaining a house party of young people. Among their guests are Miss Lella Gordon, daughter of Mrs. George Barnett, Miss Roberta Wiley, Miss Katherine Harlow, and Miss Constance Harrison, daughter of Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railroad, and Mrs. Harrison.

Others from Washington, who are spending the week, or a part thereof, in Annapolis, to attend the commencement festivities are Major Gen. and Mrs. W. W. Wetherston, Paymaster General Samuel McGowan, Major Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett, Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson, Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin, Capt. and Mrs. Edward W. Eberle, Miss Louise Clark, Miss Louise Fenet, and Miss Dorothy Mason.

The chief event of this evening will be the class german, and tomorrow evening the June ball will be held in the armory.

Mrs. John Temple Graves entertained at an informal luncheon today complimentary to Mrs. DeWitt Talmadge and her house guest, Mrs. John Needham, of Philadelphia. The other guests were Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. John K. Shields, Mrs. John E. Osborne, Mrs. Joseph Rucker Lamar, Mrs. Edward P. Forcher, Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Mrs. L. E. Cochran and Mrs. Samuel Graham. Later in the afternoon the guests were entertained at bridge.

Mrs. Needham will be the honor guest at an informal luncheon which Mrs. Talmadge will give tomorrow at the Dower House. Mrs. Needham, who has been visiting Mrs. Talmadge for several weeks, will leave Washington on Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Andrews ex-president of the District Federation of Women's Clubs will entertain at luncheon on Monday at her residence in Fairmont street in honor of the Woman's Club of Bethesda.

Among those entertaining luncheon parties at the New Willard yesterday were the Secretary to the Treasury, William Tumulty; John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Treasury; Paymaster General Samuel McGowan; of the Navy; Gerald May, Senator John H. Bankhead, Chief Justice J. H. Covington of the Supreme Court; the District, William P. G. Harding, of the Federal Reserve Board, and former Congressman C. B. Landis.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, and Mrs. Daisy McLaughlin Stevens, president general of the Daughters of the Confederacy, were the honor guests at a dinner given last evening at the Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, by the District of Columbia Division of Sons of Confederate Veterans, J. Roy Price, commanding.

Walter S. Penfield was host at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club last night, when his guests were the counsel of the Department of State and Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Max Kaufmann, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlop, Mrs. John Foster Dulles, Miss Barbara Kaufmann, and Ramon Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reeside were also among the dinner hosts of the evening, entertaining in compliment to Mrs. Hampden Gary and her guests, Miss Grace Herndon and Miss Frances Hayes, of Texas.

Miss Herndon and Miss Hayes will be the guests of honor at a dinner at the Army and Navy Club this evening, given by Dr. Ethelbert Talbot.

Former Secretary of State and Mrs. Philander K. Knox were among those entertaining at dinner at the Shoreham last night.

Weddings-Engagements

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Virginia Cassidy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Cassidy, to Thomas Raymond Clark, was celebrated last evening at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart. The Rev. Father Gavin officiated in the presence of a large gathering of friends of the two families. The church was beautifully decorated, and a musical program was given during the seating of the guests. The bride was escorted by her father and wore a gown of white satin combined with old rose point lace and a tulle veil. She was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Cassidy, as maid of honor, and Mrs. John Tobin Cassidy, a cousin, of East Orange, N. J., as matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were three little cousins of the bride, Miss Katherine

Whelen, Miss Elizabeth Whelen, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Miss Annie E. Whelen, of East Orange, N. J. Mr. F. J. Whelen, of Trenton, N. J., was best man, and the ushers were Hugh Cassidy, brother of the bride; Hugh Fagan, Louis Carroll, Robert Scrubbs, and Emerson Golliday. A large reception at Raucher's followed the ceremony. The guests included a number from out of town.

Miss Kathryn N. Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele, of New York, has selected June 28 for her marriage to Dr. Charles von Studt. The ceremony will be performed in the Church of the Advent at Westbury, L. I. The reception, which will follow the ceremony, will be held at Sunnyside Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Steele's summer home is at Westbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd F. Ward, of Arlington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna L. Ward, to Charles H. Ward, of this city, on Tuesday at noon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. D. Gaw, pastor of West Washington Baptist Church. The young couple will be at home in Clarendon, after July 1.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the spring took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McChesney, 1453 Harvard street, when their daughter, Miss Sue M. McChesney, became the bride of Dr. Edward Earl Gordon, a member of the dental faculty of George Washington University. The decorations were carried out in white and green, and the ceremony was performed by Gurney Memorial Presbyterian Church, in the presence of the members of the families of the contracting parties.

The bride's gown was white satin trimmed with duchess lace, with court train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil of tulle was caught with blue and white ribbons. Her traveling suit was blue and white. A delightful reception followed the ceremony. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. and Mr. E. J. Edmonds, of New York, and Miss Margaret Filbert, of Womelsdorf, Pa.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday when Miss Marjory Marvin, daughter of Mrs. A. Marvin, of Rochester, N. Y., was married to Charles E. Langley, of this city. Only the family party witnessed the ceremony, which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Cameron, in Wyoming avenue. A luncheon followed.

Miss Katherine L. Hillary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clinton Hillary, and Dr. Frederick A. Grenfell, of Chicago, will be married at 7 o'clock this evening at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, by the Rev. Father Edward J. Corbett. Palms, ferns, and pink roses and peonies will decorate the church and the house. The bride will be given away by her father, who is groomed in white duchess satin, trimmed with chamois lace and a long court train. Her bouquet will be composed of white and orange blossoms. Her bouquet will be shower of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Bernice Skillman, of Buffalo, will be matron of honor for her sister, and will wear a gown of cream lace over pink satin and a leghorn hat trimmed with pink roses and black velvet streamers.

Miss Frances Hillary, Miss Edna Dove, Miss Lydia Krauss, and Miss Margaret Hillary will be bridesmaids. The bridesmaids will wear pink tulle gowns made in the style of 1910 and poke bonnets of pink chiffon, trimmed with tiny pink rose buds and streamers of blue velvet. They will carry gold French baskets filled with pink roses.

William Grenfell, of this city, will be best man for his brother, and the ushers will be Adlai Lechl, Harold Hines, James Patterson, of Virginia; Donald McKenna, Charles Traversa, and William Malenda.

A reception will follow at the home of the bride in P street. The bride's traveling costume will be a plain tailored suit of dark blue serge and a small black hat. The young couple, after an extended trip, will reside at Woodlawn, Chicago.

St. Patrick's Church was the scene of an interesting wedding, followed by a nuptial mass, when Emily Frances Thomas, daughter of Mr. Emily F. Thomas, of Columbia road, was married to Thomas S. Skelington, of Lisbon, N. Y.

The Rev. Father James A. Smythe performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Father McGowan. The bride wore a becoming suit of dark blue lake tulle, with a hat to match, and an orange bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Katherine Thomas, who was her sister's only attendant, wore a gown of Reichen blue tulle with a wide white hat of the same color. Mr. Joseph Albi, of Spokane, Wash., was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Skelington left immediately after the ceremony for their future home near Lisbon. They will visit Niagara Falls and the Great Lakes en route.
